

Once we have seen that your child is competent during training sessions, the first stage will be to play in friendly games or development tournaments that are held throughout the year.

To compete in organised events your child must be ten years of age. However, younger children if capable will be invited to play in friendly matches.

For the younger children especially, the aim is to have FUN, whilst developing skills and ability.